

Workshop on preparations for Competitive Exams Steps to don the role as manager in the corporate world

Bhavan's S.A.Institute of management conducted a workshop on "Preparation of competitive examinations for management courses" on 28-03-2010 by a popular and a very well known resource person Prof.N.Divakar Rao from Shimoga.

Prof. N. Divkar Rao, BE, PGDIM, MBA, PGDTD.Principal, NES Institute of advanced studies, Shimoga nd Director HRD-JNN college of engineering Shimoga, the resource person for the programme, threw light on the aspects such as, how to apply for the exam, how to solve the questions, group discussion, personal interviews etc. Since management courses have gained. its own importance to get admission in a good institution appearing for these management competitive examination is necessary. Many times students particularly in rural areas are not aware of this competitive examination. With a view to expose the final year degree students of Hubli-Dharwad & Gadag and impart the information & knowledge about the competitive examination avenues of employment etc. one day workshop on "Preparation of competitive examinations for management courses" was organized by Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan BSAIM on 28-03-2010 in the college premises. The students who attended this one of its kind programme, felt that the programme was most useful in their preparation for employment and subsequent career. It is no wonder that the vast experience & knowledge of the speakers helped the students a lot.

The morning session was devoted for question paper solving, the questions for various competitive exams namely CAT, MAT, KMAT, XAT etc. After lunch the afternoon session was devoted for GD, personal interview & interaction with the students. The feedback of the students revels that the programm was excellent & students were benefit by it.

Prof. Chandra Akkihal, Director Bhavan Marshall University MBA Programme and Sri. A. Krishnamurthy, Hon. Secretary Bharatiya Vidya Bhavan, Bangalore Kendra and Director BSAIM graced the occasion besides Dr. S.G. Purohit Principal BSAIM.

